

Leo P. Cobble

NURSE

Date of birth: 3 December 1986

+1 435-627-6718

LeoPCobble@gmail.com

United States, Washington, 4137
Burnside Avenue, UT 84780

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Highly skilled Nurse with a strong background in acute care settings. Dedicated to providing compassionate patient-centered care while ensuring adherence to established healthcare protocols. Demonstrated ability to work collaboratively within interdisciplinary teams to deliver exceptional outcomes. Seeking a challenging position where I can utilize my clinical expertise to improve patient outcomes.

LINKS

leopcobble

HOBBIES

- Photography
- Hiking

EXPERIENCE

- 2011 - Now

Nurse

Riverfront Medical Center / United States, Washington

- Worked for 5 years at Riverfront Medical Center, a renowned healthcare facility in Seattle, where I provided exceptional patient care in a fast-paced environment.
- Collaborated effectively with physicians, pharmacists, and other healthcare professionals to ensure patients received the best possible treatment.
- Administered medications, monitored vital signs, and performed various medical procedures with precision and compassion.
- Demonstrated strong communication skills while educating patients and their families on medical conditions, treatment plans, and lifestyle modifications.

AWARDS

Excellence in Patient Care Award,
Riverfront Medical Center, 2017

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BS)

University of Washington / United States, Washington

- Graduated with honors, December 2010

SKILLS

Proficient in electronic medical records (EMR) systems such as Epic and Cerner

Expert

Comprehensive knowledge of medical terminology and anatomy

Expert

Exceptional critical-thinking skills to quickly assess patient conditions and make accurate decisions

Expert

Strong interpersonal skills that foster effective communication with patients and team members

Expert

Excellent time management abilities for multitasking in high-pressure environments

Expert

