

Wilhelmina Lozano

Architect

+1 254 674 8758

willamlozano@email.com

United States, Columbus, OH, 3579 Lowes Alley, 43215

Motivated and detail-oriented aspiring architect seeking to leverage educational background, creativity, and passion for design to contribute to innovative architectural projects. Eager to gain practical experience and contribute positively to a dynamic architectural firm.

Skills

- Proficient in AutoCAD, SketchUp, Revit, and Adobe Creative Suite
- Strong understanding of architectural design principles, building materials, and construction techniques
- Familiarity with 3D modeling and rendering software such as Rhino and V-Ray
- Knowledgeable about sustainable design practices and LEED certification standards
- Excellent hand sketching and drafting abilities
- Ability to create and interpret architectural drawings, including plans, elevations, and sections
- Effective presentation skills, including public speaking and visual communication
- Ability to work collaboratively in multidisciplinary teams and communicate ideas effectively to diverse stakeholders
- Strong organizational skills and attention to detail in managing project documentation and files
- Adaptability to learn new software and technologies quickly

Education

○ Bachelor of Architecture

2020 - Now

The Ohio State University

United States, Columbus, OH

Relevant Coursework:

- Architectural Design Studio (2019-2023)
- Sustainability in Architecture (2023)
- Digital Design and Modeling (2023)
- Structural Systems (2022)
- Building Construction (2021)
- Architectural History (2020)

Experience

- November 2023 - Now
Junior Architectural Drafter
Visionary Design Group / United States, Columbus, OH

Projects

- March 2022 - March 2023
Design Studio Project
Led a team in the design and development of a sustainable community center, focusing on energy-efficient systems and environmentally friendly materials

