

Baseball Umpire

Margaret Morris

Professional summary

Seasoned Baseball Umpire with a solid background in officiating high school, collegiate, and minor league games. Possesses a deep understanding of the game and a strong commitment to fair play. Seeking to bring my experience to a professional or semi-professional baseball league.

Experience

Baseball Umpire

April 2015 - Now

Eastern Massachusetts Baseball Umpires Association (EMBUA) / Boston, MA

- Officiate over 400 baseball games across high school and amateur levels.
- Accurately call balls, strikes, and plays, ensuring compliance with the official rules of baseball.
- Maintain a professional demeanor when handling disputes from coaches and players.
- Regularly participate in association meetings to discuss rule changes and best practices.

Minor League Baseball Umpire

June 2012 - September 2014

New England Collegiate Baseball League (NECBL) / Hartford, CT

- Officiated minor league games, ensuring the fair application of MLB rules.
- Collaborated with other umpires to ensure consistent and accurate calls on the field.
- Managed player and coach interactions to maintain game control and sportsmanship.
- Attended pre-season training camps to refine umpiring techniques and stay current with rule updates.

Publications

"The Art of Calling Balls and Strikes: A Umpire's Perspective"

Baseball Umpire Journal, Published: July 2023

- Authored an article detailing the challenges and strategies of accurately calling balls and strikes in high-pressure games.

"Evolving with the Game: How Rule Changes Impact Umpiring"

New England Sports Officiating Review, Published: October 2022

- Explored the impact of recent rule changes on baseball officiating, offering insights into how umpires can adapt to maintain game integrity.

 (617) 555-7890

 margaretmorris@email.com

 Boston, MA

Education

Bachelor of Science in Sports Studies

Boston University

MA

Graduated: May 2010

Certifications

- Professional Baseball Umpire Corp (PBUC) Certification — Issued: March 2023
- SafeSport Certification — Issued: April 2013; Expires: April 2025
- National Association of Sports Officials (NASO) Member — Active since May 2012

Skills

Thorough knowledge of MLB and high school baseball rules

Excellent judgment and decision-making abilities

Strong communication and conflict resolution skills

Physical stamina and attention to detail 