Mark Thompson

Hi Jamie,

I hope you're doing well! My name is Mark Thompson, and I run a small marketing agency called Creative Edge in Seattle. I recently came across your bakery, Sweet Delights, and was impressed by your community engagement and unique offerings.

I believe there could be a great synergy between our businesses, especially in promoting local events. I'd love to discuss the possibility of collaborating on a marketing campaign that highlights both our brands.

If you're open to it, I'd appreciate the chance to chat over coffee.

Looking forward to your thoughts!

Best,

Mark Thompson
