

Emily Richards

ONCOLOGY NURSE EDUCATOR

(555) 234-5678

emily.richards@gmail.com

United States, Chicago, IL

SKILLS

Curriculum development and assessment	Expert
Clinical training and mentorship	Expert
Patient education techniques	Expert
Strong communication and presentation skills	Expert
Interdisciplinary collaboration	Expert

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Innovative Oncology Nurse Educator with 8 years of clinical experience and a passion for teaching and mentoring nursing students. Skilled in curriculum development, patient education, and clinical training.

EXPERIENCE

June 2019 - Now

Oncology Nurse Educator

Nursing School / United States, Chicago, IL

- Develop and implement curriculum for oncology nursing courses, ensuring alignment with best practices and standards.
- Provide clinical training and mentorship to nursing students in oncology settings.
- Evaluate student performance and provide constructive feedback to support their learning and development.
- Collaborate with healthcare institutions to create externship opportunities for nursing students.

May 2017 - May 2019

Staff Oncology Nurse

Chicago Cancer Center / United States

- Delivered patient-centered care to oncology patients, including chemotherapy administration and symptom management.
- Participated in nursing education initiatives and contributed to training new staff.

EDUCATION

2017 - 2019

Master of Science in Nursing

University of Illinois at Chicago / United States

2013 - 2017

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Loyola University of Chicago / United States

Registered Nurse

Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation / Certification Date: June 2022

Certified Nurse Educator

National League for Nursing / Certification Date: September 2021