Freelance Art Director

Dear Reader,

I am delighted to share a reference for Ms. Lila Martinez, who cared for our children during the summer of 2023. We hired Lila for a full-time, seasonal role while our regular caregiver was on leave.

She looked after our three kids—ages 5, 7, and 9—in a very creative and active household. Mornings were often spent at the beach or local museums, while afternoons included art projects, storytelling, or building obstacle courses in the backyard. Lila matched their energy with thoughtful planning and a calm demeanor.

Her background in early childhood education was evident. She created weekly learning themes, from nature science to beginner Spanish, keeping the children engaged while having fun.

Lila is trustworthy, easy to work with, and beloved by all three of our kids. We would gladly bring her back next summer if she's available.

All the best,

Jenna Moore
