

 (365) 489-5683
 geraldinebarnes@gmail.com
 Santa Fe Springs, CA

EDUCATION

Certificate in Restoration Carpentry

California School of Woodworking, Los Angeles, CA

- Graduated: May 2025
- Completed coursework in wood preservation and architectural restoration.
- Gained hands-on experience in repairing and restoring vintage woodwork, including molding, trim, and structural elements.

Associate of Applied Science in Carpentry

Santa Fe Springs Community College, CA

- Graduated: December 2024
- Studied fundamental carpentry skills, including framing, finishing, and cabinet making.
- Developed expertise in reading blueprints, using carpentry tools, and applying industry standards.

Bachelor of Arts in History

University of California, Los Angeles, CA

- Graduated: June 2012
- Focused on historical research and preservation techniques, enhancing understanding of historical architecture and artifacts.

SKILLS

- Proficient in historical carpentry techniques and wood restoration
- Experienced in using carpentry tools and equipment
- Skilled in reading blueprints and technical drawings
- Excellent attention to detail and craftsmanship
- Effective problem-solving and project management abilities
- Good communication and client interaction skills

GERALDINE BARNES

RESTORATION CARPENTER

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Detail-oriented professional transitioning into Restoration Carpentry with a strong foundation in craftsmanship and a passion for preserving historical structures. Equipped with extensive education in carpentry techniques and historical restoration.

EXPERIENCE

- January 2025 - May 2025

Restoration Carpentry Intern

Heritage Restoration Inc. / Los Angeles, CA

- Assisted skilled carpenters in restoring historical buildings, including repairing damaged woodwork and replicating original designs.
- Learned techniques for wood cleaning, stabilization, and finishing to ensure structural integrity and historical accuracy.
- Participated in documenting restoration processes and collaborating with preservationists to meet project standards.
- Supported the setup and organization of tools, materials, and scaffolding for daily restoration tasks.

- June 2022 - December 2023

Freelance Carpenter

Self-Employed / Santa Fe Springs, CA

- Completed various carpentry projects, including furniture repair, custom cabinetry, and home renovations.
- Demonstrated skills in precision cutting, assembly, and finishing, applying a keen eye for detail to ensure high-quality outcomes.
- Engaged with clients to understand project needs, providing recommendations and delivering tailored solutions.